

Multi-Cultural Culinology® From Campus to Career

2007-38422-18040

$275,000.00

Institution Involved

Allan Hancock College

CSREES\USDA Relevant Priority or Mission Area

Culinary Arts and Management (CAM) and Culinology® Careers

Strengthen underrepresented student recruitment and retention

Advance faculty and counselor development

Objectives /Activities

Provide comprehensive outreach on the CAM & Culinology® program

Provide faculty coaching, guidance, peer counseling, and tutoring to ensure student success

Provide stipends to students with an identified need

Award a scholarship to two Culinology® transfer students to complete a Culinology® BS degree

Increase CAM program enrollment and increase certificate completion

Enroll students in the Culinology® AA degree

Ensure student persistence and transfer

Create a Recruitment, Retention, and Resource (R³) manual for faculty and counselors

Create online tutorials for three Culinology® core courses

Develop industry internships for students and externship for faculty

Create collaborative events with the USDA Food and Nutrition Services Agency

Beneficiaries

Allan Hancock College Students & Faculty

Culinary Arts and Management & Culinology® industries

Local entrepreneurs and community

Research Chef's Association

Evaluation

Student survey data

Enrollment, certificate, AA degree data

California State University enrollment data

Internship and employer evaluations

Expected Impact

Increase awarded CAM certificates

Increase awarded Culinology® AA & BS degrees

Successful CAM and Culinology® career paths

Sustainable program for other's to follow

This is a USDA CSREES funded project